

5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

THE COOPER UNION
FOR THE ADVANCEMENT
OF SCIENCE AND ART

A weekly roundup of 5 Things to keep you disconnected from Reality

CONGRATULATIONS TO FOUR ARCHITECT STUDENTS

Four Cooper Union architecture students were actually seen on the third floor instead of on the seventh floor, but refused to tell us their names!

WHAT SIT-IN?

PUBLIC FORUM IN THE GREAT HALL

Join scientists and health professionals as they try to explain why Cooper tried to lock bathrooms and water fountains on the 7th floor. Cooper Union Could Be a Public Health Disaster.

DISTRACTION

CELEBRATING COOPER UNION CLASS OF 2013 LEAVING

We invite Young Alumni classes 2002-2012 to B BAR & GRILL because we don't want any of those Friends of Cooper Union people to be around. This event was previously known as "What, Me Worry?"

GOODBYE SENIORS

END OF FULL-TUITION SCHOLARSHIP SHOW

This annual exhibition transforms the classrooms and studios of The Cooper Union into empty galleries as students give away their work. The last thing to be free and open to the public.

COME MOURN

ADMINISTRATION-ONLY DINNER CRUISE

Be trapped on a cruise around Manhattan, isolated from protesters and the media. Meet top alumni donors (all Board members) and thank our President for not instituting an austerity budget and firing all of our asses. Four more years!
